

C L E A N

Privacy Policy

CLEAN Perfume has created this privacy statement because your privacy is very important to us. The following discloses the information gathering and dissemination practices for Cleanperfume.com.

Contact information from the order forms is used to ship purchases of CLEAN Perfume and other Fusion Brands Inc products. The customer's contact information is also used to contact customers whenever necessary. We never sell, rent, or give out our customers' personal information to third parties.

All Online transactions are protected by secure server software and the latest industry standard 256 bit encryption technology is used to protect your credit card information and keep your transaction details secure. Financial information that is collected is used only for the purpose of completing online transactions in the purchase of our products.